HELPS SMOOT

How the Independent Republicans Were Beguiled Into Support of Enemy.

FOOLED BY CUNNING TRICK

DEMOCRATS SELECT CANDIDATE FOR GOVERNOR TODAY.

Harry S. Joseph, machine buster: Harry S. Joseph, insurgent; Harry S. Joseph, manufacturer of independent slates—the transformation of the former Smoot follower seemed complete. There was great rejoicing among the insurgents. One of the most abject slaves of the Smoot machine had smashed his fetters, deserted his mestars and injured the insurgents of the machine had smashed his fetters, sheriff's office a hure joke. ry S. Joseph, insurgent; Harry S. Jo-Smoot machine had smashed his fetters, deserted his masters and joined the insurgents in the fight for political inde-pendence.

This was the announcement last Monday that filled the insurgents with joy. Harry Joseph announced loudly that he had been mistreated by the party leaders and would fight against them. He advocated that a caucus be held to nominate an independent legislative slate in order to defeat the machine candidates. The caucus was held and Harry S. Jo-seph was made the chairman of the independent caucus. In the uniform of an insurgent Harry S. Joseph apparently felt as much at home as he did in the livery of the federal bunch.

At the caucus came first the consider-At the caucus came first the consideration of the proposed nominees for the state senate. Harry Joseph insisted that Sam Park be sacrificed, for Park had said that he was opposed to both Smoot and Joseph. Also, Mr. Park favored Senator Sutherland, and Harry Joseph did not. The result was that Carl Badger, C. E. Marks and S. J. Stookey, all stalwart Smoot men, were decided upon by the anti-Smoot insurgents, all under the handling of Harry S. Joseph, insurgent handling of Harry S. Joseph, insurgent of the rebellion was best shown in the selection of the candidates for representatives. Harry Joseph explained that the Lest and strongest independent ticket that could be chosen would consist of five Mormons and five Gentiles. The idea was received with acclaim and Mr. Joseph then dictated the ticket. A ballot was prepared by the joyous insurgents, and the name of a Mormon put first, a Gentile second, a Mormon third, a Gentile fourth, and so on through the list. Thousands of these ballots were printed and thrown about the convention hall the following day.

The strange thing about Mr. Joseph's he following day. The strange thing about Mr. Joseph's "insurgent" ticket was that six on his ticket were nominated by the convention, five Mormons and one Gentile-Hugh Mc-Millin—and every one of them pledged to vote for Smoot. The four Gentiles chosen by the caucus declined to pledge themselves to vote for Smoot and were rejected by the delegates at the conventible to the delegate to the de tion, insurgents and all. The four se-lected in their stead are all known to be Smoot men. As selected the ticket con-sists of eight Mormons and two Gen-

The Gentiles on the insurgent Joseph committee who were rejected as not to be relied upon by the Smoot men are A. E. Lee, C. Stanley Price, Dr. George Ellerbeck and Robert Porter. In their place were chosen Brigham Clegg, Bishop William McMillan, E. Holman and Bisharic Counseller Isseph M. Holt.

And the insurgent Republicans are just beginning to discover that Harry Joseph's little game was pro-Smoot and anti-Sutherland, and very much anti-in-

COMMITTEE MEETS TODAY.

Democrats Will Select Candidate for Governor of Utah.

The Democratic state committee meets The Democratic state committee meets this evening to select a candidate for governor of Utah in place of Jesse Knight, who has declined the nomination. The meeting will be held in the office of L. R. Martineau, state chairman, in The Herald building, at 7:30 o'clock. The choice of the committee will probably be either William M. Roylance of Provo or Property V. Pockity of Salt Lake. Robert N. Baskin of Salt Lake. William M. Roylance is a Mormon and
